SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: 3 years.

The court imposes a 3-year term of supervised release. This term consists of 1 year on each of Counts One, Five, and Six, as well as 3 years on each of Counts Two through Four, all counts to be served concurrently. However, upon release from imprisonment, the defendant will likely be deported and will not be in the United States to be supervised. At all times, the defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement and, if deported, shall not reenter the United States without the express consent of the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security.

If the defendant is deported, and within 3 years of release from imprisonment returns to this country, legally or illegally, the defendant shall be subject to the conditions of supervised release and shall report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours of reentry. If the defendant for some reason is not deported and remains in this country, the defendant shall be subject to the conditions of supervised release and shall report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours of release from imprisonment.
